

ARISTOTLE UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI (AUTH)
RESEARCH ETHICS AND DEONTOLOGY COMMITTEE

Thessaloniki 18/03/2026
Prot. No.: 64801/2026

DECISION OF THE RESEARCH ETHICS AND DEONTOLOGY COMMITTEE OF THE ARISTOTLE UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI (AUTH)

Title of the research protocol: “Linking euroscepticism and populism: causes and consequences (EUPopLink)”

The Research Ethics and Deontology Committee of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, at its Meeting 165/18-03-2026, having regard to:

- a. the application (Prot. No. 62298/2026) of Prof. Ioannis Andreadis, School of Political Sciences, Faculty of Social and Economic Sciences of AUTH,
- b. his declaration that he was informed of the Regulation of Research Ethics and Deontology Committee (AUTH) and that he undertakes the obligation of compliance and observance,
- c. the Questionnaires of the research that will be given to the participants,
- d. the research protocol,
- e. the Questionnaire - Self-Assessment Report,
- f. the information letter and,
- g. the provisions of the Regulation of the Research Ethics and Deontology Committee of AUTH and the legislation to approve the research protocol with the title “Linking euroscepticism and populism: causes and consequences (EUPopLink)”, considering that, regarding the content of the research and the manner in which it is conducted, all acceptable rules of ethics and deontology as well as of integrity of research are being respected and all statutory conditions are met.

DECIDES

In no case this decision of the Research Ethics and Deontology Committee of AUTH supersedes other required approval or licensing by any competent public service, administrative body or independent administrative authority, which may additionally be required by law.

The President of the Research Ethics & Deontology Committee of AUTH

Victoria Samanidou
Professor of the School of Chemistry of AUTH